

Yacht Club

Yacht Club is a small, quiet resort just one mile north of Kralendijk. It has 13 apartments, arranged around a swimming pool, almost like a "courtyard", and gives this resort a friendly, intimate atmosphere. Situated opposite Bonaire's marina, it is just 250 metres from the ocean at Eden beach, with Wannadive Dive school and Bongos Beach bar. The quality of accommodation is a very good standard. Yacht Club have several studios, one or two bedroom apartments and a penthouse. Yacht Club is a no frills resort, but has good accommodation, some useful facilities for divers and is excellent value for money.

Studios have:

- * large nicely furnished living room with a double bed;
- * large kitchen area, fridge, cooker, sink etc.;
- * separate bathroom.

Apartments have:

- * good sized, well furnished living rooms;
- * separate bathrooms;
- * well equipped kitchens;
- * spacious bedrooms with queen sized beds.

The penthouse is a very impressive 5 bedroom/5 bathroom apartment. It has an American fridge, dishwasher and combi microwave, a great option for families or groups, up to 10 people. A large well furnished living room and a balcony you can play tennis on!

If you intend to enjoy as much of the world class shore diving as possible, or explore the island, this is a very convenient base. It is also a reasonable walk or a few minutes drive into Kralendijk, with its restaurants, bars etc.

Yacht Club also offers:

- * pool with sun beds;
- * rinse tanks and lockers for divers next to the pool;
- * a barbecue for general use and next to it - a fridge (Someone was thinking when they installed that!).
